

PARISH COUNCIL

The Council had a meeting in Lewannick Village hall on Tuesday 21st June. Councillor White took the opportunity to thank all those who made the Platinum jubilee events such a success, those that organised and contributed to the soft play, the organisers of both big lunches, to the Churches for their teas and cake and also the flower arrangers, to the organisers of the walk between the two villages and those who helped with the distribution of the commemorative coins thanks also go to the BBQ at the lighting of the Beacon event. Councillor Parsons reported that housing remains a problem, in the past 12 months the numbers of people living in temporary accommodation has risen from 10,000 to 15,000. People are living in Travel lodges or Holiday parks. His full report can be found on his Councillor facebook account. The Annual Governance statement, page 4 AGAR 2021/22, Internal Auditor Report (page 3 of AGAR) and date for notice of the Exercise of public rights. It was resolved that this was a true reflection of the Councils Governance. The date for the notice of the exercise of Public rights is set for Mon 27th June to Friday 5th August. It was resolved that the 5 new houses being built in Lewannick will have the street name of "Treveglos Close." The Full minutes are available on the Parish Council website and they are also posted on Parish Council notice boards. Planning applications are available on the Cornwall council website or email Linda clerk@lewannickpc.org.uk.

Polyphant Jubilee Celebrations

A big thank you from Polyphant residents to our Parish Councillors, Ann Hobden and Shirley Jasper and all their volunteer helpers for everything they did to make the village Jubilee celebrations such a success."

Jubilee Celebrations

I hope everybody enjoyed the Jubilee celebrations, it was good to see Parish folk coming together after the pandemic. Thanks to Mike and Joy at Bovetown Farm for providing the site for lighting of the Beacon.

Jubilee Church Flower Festival Lewannick

Jubilee Weekend

Well I think I say with all honesty that our Parish celebrated the Queens Platinum Jubilee in style. I will report on the events that I was involved in, the soft play day in Lewannick village hall was well supported and everyone thoroughly enjoyed themselves, there was craft corner decorating crowns and biscuits along with face painting and of course a bouncy castle! Other soft play was also there to be enjoyed. Our thanks to Tamar Koffi and Horizon Home improvements who so kindly paid for all the soft play. Many thanks also go to Lewannick stores and 3 cows on't Green who kindly donated drinks sweets and biscuits to give to the children who were having so much fun. Tesco and Iceland also got involved with very kind donations towards the weekend events. On the Sunday Lewannick held a "Big Lunch" as the weather could not be relied on we asked the "Events" team if we could have use of a Marquee to ensure that we stayed dry, as it happened the rain stayed away. The craft table came out again and a few adults tried their hand at decorating crowns, I think the children did better. I think I can say that after 2 ½ years Lewannick wanted to party and party it did. Thanks go to all who turned up and made these events memorable.

Nia is coming to Polyphant

On Monday 25th July a FREE taster session has been organised with Ildiko Miklos, Nia is a fusion of Dance with other exercises and disciplines creating a 'workout' for body, mind, and spirit. Ildiko, is a certified Black Belt Nia teacher, who recently moved here from Hungary. The first session will be a 'classic' Nia from 10am- 11am. No previous experience is needed, and it can be practiced at any fitness level. The second session from 11:30am will be a seated Nia class, specially developed to suit those who are less mobile or find standing difficult. So you have no excuse! All welcome to Polyphant Methodist Church and Community Centre on Monday 25th July
