

PARISH COUNCIL

The Parish Council met on Tuesday 15th April in Lewannick village Hall. Adrian Parsons was not able to attend the meeting, his full report is available on his official Councillor Facebook page. There will be no election for the Parish Council as only 9 people stood for 10 places. The telephone box in Lewannick has been cleaned internally and the weeds removed from around the outside, the painting will be done when the better weather arrives. The Annual Parish meeting will be held on the 20th May at 7 o'clock in Lewannick Village Hall. Local groups and organisations are invited to present an annual report, if you are unable to attend the report can be sent to clerk@lewannickpc.org.uk. Tea, coffee and cake will be available. After the annual meeting the Parish Council will hold their ordinary Council meeting. Play areas Lewannick; It has been reported that the fencing at the bottom of the ark needs to be reviewed as the area is not secure. The gates are being left open which is possibly a result of the faulty catches. The Leylandii hedge needs to be cut back, the Chair will liaise with the Clerk to get some advice. Polyphant; The grass needs to be cut, the clerk will ask our contractor.

Parish Clock

Since the meeting the Parish clock has been repaired by Cumbria clocks and both faces are now reading the same time.

Lewannick May Day has grown into a bit of an epic event which benefits many community projects. We are only a small bunch of overworked volunteers ☹️. We desperately need some helpers on the day running things and selling raffle tickets etc.

If you could just volunteer an hour or something we'd be very grateful 🙏

Please contact us if you are able to help

Events@lewannick.info

Once again, decorating of houses and gardens in the week leading up to May Day is very much encouraged.
